

CEDL Mentoring Application: submit to azentella@ucsd.edu

1. Name: _____

2. Faculty position/Student level: _____

3. Address: _____

Tel #: _____ Fax #: _____ Email: _____

URL: _____

4. State your areas of specialization in linguistics:

5. The ways in which you would or would not be willing to serve as a mentor, based on the following list: [WRITE YES OR NO before each topic]

- ___ Basic friendship and support
- ___ Advice on how to deal with discrimination
- ___ Advice on how to juggle the unique demands on minority scholars
- ___ Advice on letters of recommendation
- ___ Networking and connecting with members of the linguistics community
- ___ Advice on written work (e.g., revisions/suggestions)
- ___ Advice on job searches and/or grant writing
- ___ Advice on publishing and/or presenting at conferences
- ___ Advice on teaching
- ___ Balancing family, community, and professional commitments
- ___ Advice on how to handle academic politics

6. Please complete:

a) I would feel comfortable mentoring : [check all appropriate]

undergrads__ grad students __ jr. faculty__ sr. faculty__

b) I would feel most comfortable mentoring members of the following group(s) _____

c) I would feel least comfortable mentoring members of the following group(s)_____

d) No preference ____

7. The maximum number of students and/or faculty that I'd be willing to mentor is _____.